

Emergency Protest in support of Babar and Talha this Thursday and Friday

Assalaamu'Alaikum.

Please see details of emergency protest below:

Emergency Protest in support of Babar and Talha this Thursday and Friday.

The case will round up tomorrow, with the verdict expected on Friday morning.

We are calling for all our supporters to join us tomorrow and Friday outside the Royal Courts of Justice, from 10am in solidarity with the families and to send a message that the ruling is of public interest.

Address: Strand, London, WC2A 2LL
Nearest tube: Temple or Holborn

As I sign off I would like you all to ask yourselves that if it was your brother, your husband or your son would you really be complacent. Wouldn't you want as many people to turn up, to try and take a day off and to give your solidarity and support so a message can be sent to the Judges that their decision is being watched by a lot of people. These 2 brothers and their families are in need of your support and duas today and when in the future you are in need of Allah Azzawajal's help don't let it be that your duas are unanswered as you didn't care for Allah Azzawajal's servants when they were in need.

For those that feel this is just another case and that we don't need to worry or that are afraid of helping I remind myself and you of the story of the 3 cows and the wolf. A brown, white and black cow. The wolf came to the white and brown cow and said hey this brown cow is a strange colour, it has its own problems, is weak and unable to defend itself so let me eat it and I'll spare the 2 of you who are fit and strong. And so they walked away and let the wolf eat the brown cow. The wolf then went to the white cow and said look you're superior to the black cow, you're fit and healthy whereas the black cow has problems - so walk away and I will spare you and only eat the black cow. The white cow walked away and left the black cow on its own to be eaten by the wolf. And then finally the day came when the wolf came back and as he was about to eat the white cow - the wolf said it would have been impossible to eat any of you had you stuck together but your selfishness and stupidity has made you a most delectable meal.

Brs and Sis - yes it isn't easy sometimes but if today you don't physically act and do something the future for all of us will be that much more at risk.

None of you truly believes (in Allah and in His religion) until he loves for his brother what he loves for himself"[Al-Bukhari & Muslim]

Ma'Salaam.
