IRAQ 10 YEARS ON: EXAMINING A DECADE OF TURBULENCE

THE CORDOBA FOUNDATION & THE SHARQ FORUM CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO A ONE DAY CONFERENCE TO EXAMINE THE ACHIEVEMENTS AND FAILURES OF A DECADE'S LONG INTERVENTION IN IRAQ BY WESTERN LED FORCES AND REGIONAL POWERS. THE CONFERENCE WILL ALSO CHART A DIRECTION WHERE ALL IRAQIS FEEL SAFE, EQUAL AND ENJOY THE FRUITS OF A REAL DEMOCRACY

This timely conference will examine the nature and shape of future international interventions in the region. Despite the huge cost to state and society, Iraq will continue to play a strategic role in the region provided it addresses its internal political and social challenges.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Wadah Khanfar - Director, The Sharq Forum (former DG of Al Jazeera)
- Jonathan Fryer - British Writer, Broadcaster and academic
- Dr Basil Hussein - Expert on Iraqi Politics
- Professor Orsemary Hollis - City University
- Professor Norman Kember - Christian Pacifist Activist
- Ahmed al-Hemyari - Head of Public Relations, Al-Shaheed Al-Sadr Office, London
- Professor Phil Marfleet - Director, Refugee Research Centre, University of East London

Date & Time: Monday 8th April, 9.30 am - 5.45pm

Limited Places!!! Attendance is strictly by invitation or application only!!

The Cordoba Foundation

Founded in 2005, The Cordoba Foundation (TCF) is an independent Think Tank specialising in Research, Media & Public Relations and Training to advocate dialogue and the promotion of peaceful and positive coexistence among disparate civilisations, ideas, cultures and people in Britain, Europe, the US and beyond. We work to promote understanding and acceptance of inter-communal and inter-religious issues through engaging with policy makers, researchers, religious leaders, the media, practitioners and a host of other stakeholders of society.

Our activities include:

- Structured consultation and advisory services
- Face-to-face interaction with decision-makers and figures of authority
- In-house research
- Workshops, seminars and debates on pertinent issues
- Consultancy
- Training and capacity-building
- Publications, Periodicals and Journals
- Resourceful website and knowledge database
